APOLOGIZE TO THE PRESIDENT

Suffragists Regret Hissing Incident Occurred.

DISCLAIM ALL RESPONSIBILITY

Delegates to the Convention in Washington Officially Declare That Their Organization, as Such, Is Not to Blame for the Interruption of President Taft's Address of Welcome.

Washington, April 16.—Disclaiming responsibility for the hissing of the president of the United States in connection with his address of greeting to them, the National American Woman Suffrage association officially expressed its regret to President Taft that "any one present, either member of our organization or outsider, should have interrupted your address by an expression of personal feeling."

The expression of regret over the episode was conveyed to the president in a letter from the board of officers of the organization, which received the unanimous approval of the suffrage convention. The action of the board in this connection was communicated to the convention by President Anna Howard Shaw, who asked the delegates as a body to stamp the letter of regret with their seal of approval.

The letter to the president was signed by Frances Squire Potter, corresponding secretary, and read as follows:

"The enclosed resolution, introduced by the national committee on convention resolutions, was adopted unanimously by the National American Woman Suffrage association.

By Unanimous Vote.

"I am instructed by the unanimous vote of the official board of delegates now assembled to send to you with the convention resolution this official communication:

"The official board and delegates were but a small part of the large gathering to hear your greeting, but, as the national representatives of the National Woman Suffrage association, these delegates feel great sorrow that any one present, either member of our organization or outsider, should have interrupted your address by an expression of personal feeling and they herewith disclaim responsibility for such interruption and ask your acceptance of this expression of regret in the spirit in which it is given."

"The convention held a symposium on 'Open Air Meetings.' Marjorie Stanton, Blanche and the speakers included Miss Ray Costello of England, H. Larence Baker of Washington, H. Stanley McCormick of Massachusetts, Susan W. Fitzgerald of Massachusetts, Mary Bentley Thomas and Alice Duer Miller.

At the session of the convention at night Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Suffrage alliance, addressed the convention. The delegates endorsed a motion that her address be printed and sent to every man participating in the governing of the United States, including the president.

REQUEST AN UNUSUAL ONE

That of Attorney Brandeis Puzzles Investigating Committee.

Washington, April 16.—The "prosecution" in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy indicated at the day's hearing by the congressional investigating committee that it was holding its big guns in reserve until Secretary Ballinger takes the stand.

Attorney Brandeis sought permission to defer the cross-examination of Frank Pierce, assistant secretary of the interior, who concluded his testimony, until after he had an opportunity to question Secretary Ballinger. The committee appeared to be divided on the question as to whether Mr. Brandeis should be allowed to recall witnesses for the "defense" after they had been excused from the stand. It was decided to leave the matter pending, owing to the scant attendance of the committee at the time.

When Senator Sutherland expressed the opinion that the request was a most unusual one, Mr. Brandeis replied that inasmuch as he had been denied the privilege of calling Mr. Ballinger as his witness he thought it no more than right that he should be permitted to cross-examine Mr. Ballinger before questioning his subordinates. In this opinion Senator Purcell heartily concurred, but other members, including Senator Root, strongly dissented. Mr. Brandeis added that after he had cross-examined Mr. Ballinger he might decide that it was unnecessary for him to question Mr. Pierce and others of his office.

Attempts to Burn Jail.
Bayfield, Wis., April 16.—An Austrian, name unknown, who was arrested, set fire to the jail and attempted to smother himself to death. An hour before he had called at the City drug store and asked for poison, but he was refused. When the jail was opened by the city marshal the Austrian grabbed a chair and attempted to lay out the officer.

LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Judges McClenahan, Stanton and Wright Concur in Decision Which Was Filed Today

W. S. McClenahan of Brainerd, C. W. Stanton, of Bemidji, and B. P. Wright, of Park Rapids, the three judges of the district court in the Fifteenth Judicial district, hold that the "patrol section" of the state fire warden law of 1909 is unconstitutional, their decision having been rendered in findings which were filed with Clerk of Court F. W. Rhoda in this city today.

The constitutionality of the "patrol section" of the state fire warden law was attacked in several cases which were brought against railroad companies last fall, wherein the state attempted to enforce that provisions of the law which required the railroad companies to "employ at least one patrolman for every mile of their railroad through land liable to be overrun by fires, discover and extinguish fires occurring near the line of railroad, by which is meant a distance within which a fire could usually be set by sparks from a passing locomotive."

Judges McClenahan, Stanton and Wright decided to sit en banc and jointly consider a test case which was taken from the municipal court at Brainerd, the N. P. railway company being the defendant. The case was heard on the 23rd day of September, 1910, at which time the state was represented by John P. Coleman, of St. Paul, M. F. Price of Grand Rapids, with C. A. Hart for the N. P. railway; W. N. Steele for the G. N. railway company; E. E. McDonald, Crookston Lumber company and R. F. Powell for the Minneapolis & Rainy River company.

The different features of the state fire warden law were gone into pretty thoroughly at that time and both the attorneys for the state and council for the different companies went over the ground thoroughly with regard to the patrol section of the law. The judges took the matter under advisement, and to Judge Wright was delegated the duty of writing the decision in which all three judges concurred.

Judge Wright holds that the fire warden statute is void and that the fire warden paragraph of the statute is almost wholly composed of terms, no practically exact definition of which is known, and that the act itself does not define it; and that in case of a trial various witnesses would be unable to testify as to the season, the nature of the land through which the railroad passed and other material issues involved; and that in submitting the case it would seem almost impossible for the court to instruct the jury intelligently in the matter—Bemidji Pioneer.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Brainerd Residents Enthusiastic

No wonder scores of Brainerd citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truth full representations of the daily work done in Brainerd by Doan's Kidney Pills:

Mrs. J. H. Zellers, 915 Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says:—"I just as enthusiastically recommend Doan's Kidney Pills now as I did several years ago when I publicly endorsed them. I suffered a great deal from dull, heavy pains across the small of my back and over my kidneys. There was also a miserable, bearing-down sensation through my loins and could not stoop without suffering intensely. The secretions from my kidneys plainly showed that these organs were disordered. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from a local druggist and the results of their use were wonderful. I was helped from the first, and continued use resulted in a complete cure. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time even more highly than I did in my previous statement for since that time no symptoms of kidney trouble has reappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PORTER J. M'CUMBER.

North Dakota Senator Very Ill in Washington.

M'CUMBER UNDER THE KNIFE

Operation Performed on the North Dakota Senator.

Washington, April 16.—An operation was performed on Senator Porter J. M'Cumber of North Dakota at the Garfield hospital in this city. Senator M'Cumber has been ill for several days, but he did not take to his bed until Thursday. Friday Mr. M'Cumber was taken to the hospital and the attending physicians decided to operate on him at once.

It was said at the hospital his condition is favorable and that no serious consequences are anticipated. Friends of the North Dakota senator say that he is painfully, but not seriously, ill.

EIGHT MEN ARE DEAD AND SEVEN MISSING

Landslide Buries Construction Camp in Canada.

St. Alphonse, Que., April 16.—An immense landslide, started by a blast of dynamite, carried a score of men down the side of a steep hill and buried the construction camp of the Haha Bay railway under tons of earth and rock. Not a workman in the camp escaped and practically every one in the working gang on the hill was more or less seriously injured.

A rescue party has taken out eight dead, including Ladislav Gagne of St. Joseph, Que., chief engineer in charge of the work; his assistants, William O'Brien and Joseph Jennings of Toronto, Ont., and five laborers. Seven are missing.

The men killed were asleep in the camp at the foot of the hill when the blast was set off. All the men in the working gang who escaped serious injury in the rough trip down the hill were at once organized into a rescue party and word was sent to St. Alphonse for aid. It will take several days to reach all parts of the buried camp.

TRAINMEN MAY GO ON STRIKE

Those on the Lackawanna Likely to Quit Work.

Cleveland, April 16.—A long distance telephone message from President W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen at Scranton says that the federated railroad organizations may be ordered on strike against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad within forty-eight hours.

President Lee informed the officers at the headquarters of the brotherhood here that the railroad officials had declined an offer of arbitration, and that the strike order might be expected at any time.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors ended the wage dispute with the Nickel Plate railroad, so far as the yard employees are concerned.

At all major points outside of Chicago the men will receive a wage of 37 and 40 cents an hour, and at minor points 35 and 38 cents an hour, the highest pay going to night workers. This is 1 cent lower than the Chicago scale at major points and 2 cents lower in the smaller yards. In Chicago the Nickel Plate will pay the prevailing scale.

Hunter Makes a Stake.

Lethbridge, Alta., April 16.—Julius Young has returned from a trip into Northern British Columbia. He went as far north as Queensville and brought back a pack of skins worth about $12,000. In the pack are three silver foxes, which are selling on the London market for about $1,800 apiece; 200 wolves, 80 lynx, 10 cross fox, 60 mink, 20 fishers, 500 weasels, 4 mountain lions, 1,500 muskrats and 40 beavers.

Damages Grain and Fruit.

Madison, S. D., April 16.—A regular blizzard is setting in here with snow and sleet. Early sown grain and fruit blossoms will be damaged, if not totally destroyed.

Tornado Kills One.

Columbia, Tenn., April 16.—A tornado which struck here cost one life and destroyed property worth $25,000.

DOES NOT LIKE THE MEASURE

President Taft May Veto Rivers and Harbors Bill.

NOT DRAIN ON THE TREASURY

But Methods Employed for the Purpose of Inducing the Senate Committee to Include in the Bill Appropriations Which the House Turned Down Are the Cause of the Chief Executive's Objections.

Washington, April 16.—President Taft does not like the rivers and harbors bill as it was reported to the senate from the commerce committee and he may veto it. This was the statement made to a senator who is in a position to know the president's attitude toward the $52,000,000 waterways measure and who has very strong reasons for desiring that it become a law.

It is not to the heavy drain on the treasury which the passage of the bill will mean that the president objects. His objections are based on reports that have come to him regarding the lobbying and logrolling methods employed for the purpose of inducing the senate commerce committee to include in the bill appropriations for several projects which the house turned down and which the president himself looks on as doubtful or of very slight merit. The president has been informed that most of these alleged questionable projects were put into the bill for purely political reasons and that much lobbying was done with members of the commerce committee to induce them to insert the items.

Some of the projects were never approved by the government engineers and the appropriations for them included in the bill as considered in violation of time honored precedent.

President's Views Pronounced.

It is said the president's views on the matter are pronounced and those familiar with them look for a veto of the waterways measure unless the suspected items are eliminated before it goes through the senate.

The president's objections to the bill will not be lessened by a perusal of the exhaustive and destructive criticism of it delivered in the senate by Senator Burton of Ohio. Many provisions of the measure were condemned in the sharpest terms by this expert on waterways. He undertook to show that as the bill stands it is a hodge podge without scientific basis or system.

As a glaring instance of the absurdities of the bill, involving heavy expenditures that may never be of appreciable benefit to any one but the contractors who do the work, Senator Burton cited from the improvement of the Youghiogheny in Western Pennsylvania, partly in the district represented by Mr. Dalzell. This "branch of a branch," as the speaker called it, is to be improved at an estimated cost of upward of a million dollars by building on it three locks and dams. This Senator Burton denounced as a clear violation of the common-sense principle that branch streams should not be improved until the trunk stream into which they empty has had its improvement completed.

He also condemned the proposed heavy expenditure on the Mississippi river.

Senator Burton did not criticize any of the Northwestern items in the measure, to which Senator Nelson, who is a member of the committee, directed his particular attention. Mr. Burton favors the improvement of the upper Mississippi as proposed by Senator Nelson.

EDITOR IS BADLY BURNED

Used Gasoline or Kerosene to Start Fire.

Rochester, Minn., April 16.—R. B. Russell, editor of the Hayfield Guard, has been brought to this city in a most pitiable condition for medical attention and fears are entertained that he will not recover. Mr. Russell's body is one mass of burns and is the result of an attempt to start a fire in his office with either gasoline or kerosene.

While pouring the oil on the fire the can slipped into the stove and exploded and his entire body was engulfed in the flames.

Mr. Russell went to Hayfield from Howard Lake about four weeks ago. The building and machinery of the Guard office were damaged, but not entirely destroyed.

Alienation Suit Dismissed.

McClusky, N. D., April 16.—The famous Borst alienation case came to a sudden termination in the district court here when Judge Winchester ordered its dismissal. Amelia Borst brought suit against Jacob Borst and others for $50,000, asserting they were responsible for difficulties which had arisen between her and her husband.

Tornado Kills One.

Columbia, Tenn., April 16.—A tornado which struck here cost one life and destroyed property worth $25,000.

ROUNDING INTO SHAPE.

Jim Jeffries in His Training Camp at Ben Lomond, Cal.

ILLNESS OF "MRS. JEFFRIES"

Prevents Celebration of Fighter's Birthday Anniversary.

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 16.—Jim Jeffries is thirty-five years old, but owing to the illness of Mrs. Jeffries, festivities planned by Sam Berger for the birthday anniversary were curtailed.

On the last day of his thirty-fourth year, Jeffries faced a negro in the ring. It has been many years since he last sparred with a negro, and, as on this occasion, Bob Armstrong was the black man.

The black man has been added to Jeffries' present training camp because of his long association with Johnson, with whose style of fighting he is believed to be thoroughly familiar. Armstrong is expected to teach Jeffries how to attack and defend himself from Johnson.

RUSH-BAGOT TREATY THE ONLY OBSTACLE

Reason Why Warships Cannot Be Built on Great Lakes.

Washington, April 16.—Secretary Meyer, in a communication to the house, indorsed a former opinion of the navy department that the construction of naval vessels on the Great Lakes would constitute a violation of the Rush-Bagot convention of 1817.

This statement was in reply to a house resolution asking why the appropriation for the building of a gunboat in these waters, authorized in 1898, had not been expended, and whether any steps had been taken to remove any obstacles to construction there.

Secretary Meyer says when congress authorized the construction of a gunboat in 1898 the navy asked the state department if the navy was justified in proceeding with that construction under the treaty mentioned, and the state department replied in the negative. The United States and Canada joint commission considered the question of the right to build a vessel on the lakes in 1900. It became evident that Great Britain was prepared to stipulate for total disarmament on the lakes, but the commission adjourned without final conclusion in the matter.

The navy department advised the secretary of state Feb. 28, 1906, that "it would seem to be to the best interests of the United States if the Rush-Bagot convention could be terminated at once." There have been no subsequent steps.

Jury Unable to Agree.

Laporte, Ind., April 16.—Coming into court, after being in continuous session for twenty-six hours, the jury in the Hunt murder case was discharged, reporting being made an agreement could not be reached. Hunt was remanded to jail for a second trial. Hunt was a Lake Shore railroad brakeman and he is alleged to have murdered Joseph Tarnowski of Willow River, Minn., by throwing him from a Lake Shore train.

Duluth Company Loses Case.

Washington, April 16.—In the case of the Stone, Ordean and Wells company of Duluth, against the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington and other roads, the interstate commerce commission decided that it could not order reparation of overcharges on a shipment of canned tomatoes from Ridgely, Md., because there was no through route to Duluth from that point.

Covered With Sleet.

Fargo, N. D., April 16.—Practically all parts of the state are covered with a sleet storm, following a rain. Farmers who had completed seeding are elated over extra moisture. Others will be delayed in their spring work. The Western Union service was cut off west of Valley City.

RECEIVED WITH HIGH HONORS

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"Patrick's Family Affair"

The production of "Patrick's Family Affair," at the opera house Thursday evening, April 21, will be for the benefit of St. James Catholic church at Aitkin. The production of the play in Aitkin on St. Patrick's day was witnessed by a crowded house and was considered to be one of the best amateur plays ever produced in this section. It should and undoubtedly will draw a good house when presented here.

St. Elmo

Ever see a little wasp of a girl, all purity, innocence, beauty, madly in love with a man twice her age, cynical, worldly, wise and forming an almost brutal contrast to her dainty self, and wonder how it happened? Ever puzzle about the temptations that must beset such a girl, or try to guess what made the man as he is, and attempt to predict their future? These are some of the thoughts that must come to every person in the audience at a performance of St. Elmo. It's a play that sets one thinking and delights with its portrayal of the girl's complete triumph. The play is a remarkably fine dramatization of the thrilling novel by Augusta J. Evans. The contrast between the charming, noble minded girl, and the exciting scenes through which she is compelled to pass, provide a rare theme for the playwright and one of which full advantage is taken. St. Elmo comes to the opera house Friday, April 29.

"The Girl of the Golden West"

David Belasco's own company in his successful play, "The Girl of the Golden West" will be presented for the first time in this city tonight. One of the beauties of a Belasco production is the skillful way in which he manufactured atmosphere and retains it. In the average production, where the time represented is anything but the present, the atmosphere, such as it is, remains always on the stage, the audience realizing throughout that it is watching a play. Mr. Belasco's efforts have been directed to taking the audience along with the players into the atmosphere represented upon the stage and by various means he has succeeded in doing this so that those watching a Belasco presentation forget that it is only as spectators on the other side of the footlights, and actually live with the characters of the play. Mr. Belasco has used a device for transporting his audience to the scenes of the play that is at once extremely simple and admirably clever. When the first curtain rises the audience gaze upon the mountain path that traverses Cloudy Mountain and leads at last to the village. The mountain recedes as if the spectators were descending the path, and eventually finds himself at the Polka saloon, listening to the music and shouts from within and watching the snow beating against the windows. Then the panorama curtain is lifted and the visitor finds himself inside the saloon, side by side with the people of the play. From that time until the final curtain the auditor travels, not at a distance, watching the developments through a telescope, but in company with the characters, feeling the interest of one who was part of the settlement of Cloudy Mountain, and vitally concerned in everything that takes place.

Colonel Roosevelt Visits the Emperor of Austria.

MARK OF PERSONAL ESTEEM

Francis Joseph Receives the Distinguished American in His Private Apartments at the Hofburg Palace, Instead of in the Regular Audience Chamber—Talk for More Than Half an Hour.

Vienna, April 16.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was received at the Austrian capital in manner almost like that accorded a reigning sovereign. The punctilious Austrian court, the most brutal contrast to those of Europe, had arranged the programme and it left nothing undone which would emphasize the unprecedented honor that was being paid the visiting American.

As a special mark of his personal esteem the aged emperor-king, Francis Joseph, received Colonel Roosevelt in his private apartments at the imposing Hofburg palace instead of in the regular audience chamber. The monarch, who was attired in an imperial uniform, was extremely gracious to the American and kept him in conversation for thirty-five minutes. What interesting subjects they found to discuss has not transpired, as they were alone, and Colonel Roosevelt naturally has declined to reveal the slightest detail of the conversation.

Emperor Francis Joseph intended personally to return Colonel Roosevelt's call on his way out to the Schoenbrunn castle, where the monarch usually passes the night, but was deterred from so doing by a sudden storm.

Extended Only to Reigning Sovereigns.

Therefore, he was compelled to send his aide-de-camp. Such an honor as a return visit from the emperor is only extended to reigning sovereigns.

For Colonel Roosevelt the call on the emperor was the main feature of a busy day, which began immediately after he reached his hotel with a breakfast with Henry White, former American ambassador to France, who had not been in Vienna since he began his diplomatic career here twenty-seven years ago under President Taft's father, who was the American minister. The day included an official visit to Count von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, which lasted an hour; a call of courtesy upon Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir apparent to the throne, at the Belvedere palace; a visit to the tombs of the Hapsburgs, where, under the guidance of a brown-cloaked Capuchine monk, with a lighted taper in his hand, he laid wreaths on the tombs of Empress Elizabeth and Crown Prince Rudolph; a tour of inspection of the Spanish riding school, founded by Charles VIII, and the imperial hussar barracks; a reception by the Austrian journalists and a gala dinner given in his honor at the foreign office by Count von Aehrenthal. Yet after the busy day when Colonel Roosevelt returned to the hotel at night he mounted the stairs two at a time.

OFFICIAL ROLL OF INDIANS

Will Be Made on White Earth Reservation in Minnesota.

Washington, April 16.—Announcement was made by the attorney general that arrangements have been perfected to make an official roll of the Chippewa Indians on the White Earth reservation in Minnesota. This work is to be done as a part of the inquiry that is now in progress in relation to alleged frauds in the acquisition by certain persons of lands of the full bloods.

It was stated by an official that the government will soon be ready to go into the courts in the cases of persons who have acquired illegally lands belonging to full blood Chippewas. Under the law mixed bloods may dispose of their holdings, but there is a bar against such disposal by full bloods.

In the statement given out by Attorney General Wickersham it is pointed out that the government is opposed to the proposition of a roll of the White Earth Indians by a commission as proposed in a bill recently introduced in the house.

Linotype Operator Badly Burned.

Eveleth, Minn., April 16.—George Ecklund, linotype operator on the Eveleth Star, was seriously burned at the Star office. He was filling the gasoline tank while the burner was going and the gasoline ran over and down the pipe and exploded. His clothes caught fire and, while trying to extinguish the flames on Ecklund, P. E. Dowling, proprietor of the Star, was also severely burned on the hands.

Falls From Car to His Death.

Moorhead, Minn., April 14.—While a street car was rounding a corner H. W. Waldron fell from the rear step, striking on his head on the pavement. He was taken to St. John's hospital in Fargo, where he died in a few minutes. It is believed he suffered concussion of the brain.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1910.

Walker, the up country metropolis, is out with an announcement of a new Carnegie public library and a vaudeville show, two needed improvements.

Bob Dunn thinks "better a democratic house than a conglomeration of mongrel republicans." Bro. Dunn's remark is called out by Congressman Bede's expression along that line. It is quite possible that the next national house will be neither mongrel republican nor democratic.

The candidacy of Charles LaDu for the legislature in Cass county is being heralded wide throughout the district and Mr. LaDu's friends are putting up a telling canvass for him. However, the Blaze, printed at the home town of the candidate shows poor taste in knocking Walker papers for supporting him.

John Lind has the call on the democratic nomination for governor, and in consequence he had pressing business in a western state when the dollar dinner of the faithful took place in St. Paul. It is evident that the office of governor has no charms for the gentleman, but it is also as evident that the name of Lind looks good to the democratic manager.

The democrats have very kindly turned the democratic party of Minnesota and its machinery over to Frank Day, who will select the time and place of holding the next state convention, select the candidate for governor and attend to all the minor details. Mr. Day will call the faithful together in convention some time in August at which time Crow Wing county will be allowed eight votes in ratifying Frank's programme. The early training of the democratic spokesman in the other political parties seems to have made a valuable man of him for the democratic brethren.

The census enumerator is broad in the land and he should be given every possible assistance. When he calls on you do not forget to give him all the information he asks for—and then some. Make him think you are glad to see him, even if you are not, and tell him all about the people you know who are out of town and who ought to be counted here. Brainerd wants credit for every individual who lives in the city and temporary absence does not bar them from being counted in the best town in Northern Minnesota. Brainerd wants to go over the ten thousand mark this season.

Let the spirit of civic pride spread to every section of the city and we will soon have a city that the general public will be talking about, in our favor. There is never anything so well done as that which is done voluntarily. Get to work on that rubbish pile, rake up the tin cans, take down the old wagon that long ago outlived its usefulness and is now being stored on the common to rot down, relegate all these eyesores to the ash heap and then remove the ash heap. Do this before the authorities call on you—for Brainerd is going to be cleaned up this year if someone has to invoke the law. Your neighbors who keep a clean yard and alley will think better of you, you will feel better yourself and the strangers who visit our city will go away with a feeling that the coming metropolis of the north-west, the hub of Minnesota, has the right kind of citizens and a kind that they would like to associate themselves with. Cleanliness is next to Godliness.

RE-ELECTED ALL THE OLD TEACHERS

Board of Education Accepted Recommendation of Committee That This Be Done

ARE CONSIDERING A GYMNASIUM

The Matter of Fitting up Third Floor for Athletic Purposes

Considered

The board of education held a meeting a few nights ago and accepted the recommendation that all the old teachers be re-elected. Contracts have been sent them and the places of such as decline to accept will be declared vacant after a reasonable length of time and other teachers will be appointed to fill the places. There were very few increases granted, the total being between $40 and $50 per month.

The board is considering the matter of flooring the big room in the upper story, or attic, of the high school building and fitting it up for gymnasium and drill hall purposes. Supt. Cobb is very enthusiastic in regard to the matter and in fact the entire high school faculty is with the students in their request to the board that this be done.

It is said one enumerator in the country will now be able to find out a certain lady friend's age, which secret of course, will be jealously guarded by her.

Gilbert Lukens, of Hackensack, well known here, was married at Pine River Thursday to Miss Lillie Bart, of that place. The newly married couple left for Hackensack today after a visit at the home of his brother, A. K. Lukens. A. K. says the Lukens family is not partial on the subject of nationalities. There are four brothers, all married. One married an Irish lass, a second an English, A. K. married a Norwegian girl and Gilbert's wife is a Swede. Amos says if there had been a dozen brothers all the nationalities would have been represented.

Again we find it necessary to revise our list, as pretty much of everything, especially on the "north side," has been sold, except "OUR HAPPY HOME." This we propose to keep, and expect to live and die in BRAINERD. In 1931 we cast our lot here in BRAINERD and, while we have seen many "ups and downs," we have never lost faith in BRAINERD and CROW WING COUNTY, and the prospects never looked brighter than it does at this time, and we still maintain that a DEED TO A HOME IN BRAINERD is worth more than a bushel of RENT RECEIPTS. If you want to buy city property, farm or mineral lands, see us, as we have a large list and many choice bargains. If you want to sell city property or lands, list with us. Our motto is "GIVE EVERY MAN A SQUARE DEAL."

WILL BE A BEAUTIFUL CHURCH

Norwegian Lutheran Church on South Seventh St. Nearly Finished

TO BE DEDICATED IN JUNE

Rev. Hostager Formulating Plans for Dedication Ceremonies at That Time

The new Norwegian Lutheran church occupies two lots near the corner of Norwood and South Seventh streets and is about a block south of the location where the old church stood. It will occupy a prominent place in the square which will also contain the new post office. The church is a handsome structure, well designed and of graceful proportions and gains increased height by being built upon a high foundation. Its length is 74 feet, width 40 feet, while the height of the tower from the foundation is 52 feet. The height inside averages 27 feet. A broad flight of cement steps leads to the entrance. Large doors to the left admit one of the interior of the church. To the right is the stairway leading to the basement. Upon entering the church and glancing upward one becomes immediately aware of the soft, graceful lines which the designer, J. I. Dillon, managed to evolve in planning the curved ceiling and which conceal, like clinging folds of drapery, the two large trusses that strengthen the building. No other church in town boasts such a ceiling, whose beauty can only be excelled by its acoustic properties. The inclined floor is at such an angle that every member in the congregation can see and hear well.

The pews will be oak, seating 250 people, and will harmonize with the oak finish of the interior. The pulpit will be of oak and of handsome design. The wall near the pulpit is arched into a true half circle and is studded with electric lights. The floor of the pulpit has a circular front which will be made more elaborate with panel work. The choir will be seated in the southwest corner of the church. They will donate these seats, which will be cushioned. Back of the pulpit is a retiring room with an exit on the west side.

The windows are of leaded glass, beautifully designed. In the east end of the church and near the entrance is the large front window that has been donated to the church by the Concordia Young People's society. In the gables are the circular windows. One of these has been donated by the boys club known as the Loyal Soldiers, who will also purchase the bell for the church. Similar windows have been donated by the minister, Rev. Hostager, and by the young ladies society known as the Sunbeam Circle. The basement windows will be donated by Charles Ellison. The other windows will be given by various members of the congregation.

The lighting arrangements are admirable, 63 Tungsten electric lights being distributed throughout the church and its basement. The Ladies' Aid society will donate the large chandelier swinging from the center of the ceiling and consisting of 25 lights of 40 watt power. Eight side lights and the lights near the pulpit will illuminate the walls.

The basement measures 36 feet by 52 feet and is 10 feet high. Here Sunday school will be held and ample room is also given for festivals, suppers, etc. It will be finished with some of the best fixtures remaining from the old church. There will also be a kitchen 12 by 18, and a furnace room 12 by 18 containing a hot air furnace costing $285.

The pastor of the church is Rev. M. L. Hostager, who will soon claim Brainerd as his permanent home as he has commenced the construction of a residence three blocks from the church. He is already formulating plans for the dedication ceremonies, as the church is to be finished about June 26th. The church is certainly well built and well planned and the tireless energy and enthusiasm shown by the minister has been reflected by every member of the congregation.

The building committee is composed of A. Gilbertson, M. J. Reis, S. E. Engestrom, Andrew Anderson and Ole Olson. J. I. Dillon has been in charge of construction. The foundation work was done by Ritar Bros., furnace work by Slipp-Gruenhagen Co., outside painting by Curtis & Lieb, lathing by J. A. Hoffbauer, plastering by Charles Peterson, cement work by Fisher-Vaughn Co., and the wiring by the city department.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Good Attendance at the Thirty-third Meeting of the Crow Wing County Organization

LIST OF TEACHERS ATTENDING

Local Speakers and Others Take an Interest and Offer Many Good Suggestions

The bountiful rains of yesterday, so welcome to all in this part of the state had no deterring effect on the attendance at the Thirty-third meeting of the Crow Wing county Educational association, which convened in the court house yesterday afternoon. When the president called the meeting to order at 2:10, 40 teachers were in their seats ready for business. The roll call of officers by the secretary, Miss Lula Fuller, every officer was present to answer his name.

President Graham, in a neat speech showed the great increase in the scope of the teacher's work that had taken place in recent years.

Dr. J. A. Thabes gave a most interesting, practical, common sense talk on school sanitation. The doctor in plain, vigorous English told of the service that thinking teachers might be to humanity, especially to suffering boys and girls. He also spoke emphatically of the need of greater cleanliness in school rooms, that scrubbing once or twice a year only was a sin against our children. Dirty, dusty walls and floor provide a nesting place for microbes and are a source of many contagious diseases. He said the walls should be thoroughly dusted by some process that would remove the dust from the room and this should be done every week or two and the floors scrubbed two or three times a week.

Supt. A. D. Wilson of the State Agricultural college talked in a plain convincing manner of the place agriculture should fill in the rural schools. He said he did not think that it should form a regular part of the every day work of the school. He showed how the teacher might make agriculture a most interesting study without taking from the ordinary work of the school any of its usefulness. Mr. Wilson is accomplishing a great work for the farmers of the state by interesting the rural school teachers in scientific agriculture.

The educational exhibit, a new feature of the meetings of the association, introduced at the meeting last October, was instructive and attracted much attention. About 20 schools presented original drawings of their school houses, about the same number exhibits of writing, while only seven or eight presented essays on farming as a "Means of Making a Living in Crow Wing County."

The president appointed D. C. Henderson, of Nisswa, Miss Ethel Archibald, of Pequot, and Miss Beatrice Heath, of Jenkins, judges to award the prizes. The names of the winners will be announced later.

Despite the inclement weather a good audience was out to hear the evening program in the high school auditorium. The program was carried out as previously announced in the Dispatch. All pronounced it a most interesting session. Prof. Quigley is a most pleasing and instructive speaker.

The remainder of the program was carried out as previously announced.

I am especially well pleased with the thoroughness with which the officers and members performed their duties. The county superintendent found but little to do throughout the program. Every year sees a marked improvement in the loyalty, faithfulness and efficiency of the whole corps of teachers.

The following named teachers were in attendance:

Beatrice Heath, Jenkins.
Margaret Friedsam, Jenkins.
Dora Anderson, District 63.
Frances Bluntach, District 62.
Kato E. Frantz, District 56.

Edwin B. Peck, Outing.
Grace E. Palmer, District 88.
Margaret Cosgrove, District 76.
Arthur M. Crapo, District 72.
Alma Schellin, District 78.

There may have been other teachers in attendance who did not enroll. Superintendent Cobb and a number of his teachers encouraged the rural teachers by their kindly interest and presence.

The association by a vote of thanks showed their appreciation of the services of Prof. Quigley, Supt. A. D. Wilson, Dr. Thabes, Miss Howland, Hon. S. F. Alderman, Mrs. Dial and her corps of singers, Supt. Cobb of the city school board, county board, and the county school board association, all of whom contributed to the success of the meeting.

County Superintendent.

AN UP-TO-DATE STOVE
Do you realize there is no longer any reason why you should use a coal range? Oil is cheaper than coal; it is lighter and easier to handle, and gives an intense heat. Provided you have the right stove, oil is more economical, cleaner and less trouble. Have you seen the

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

The accompanying illustration gives you only a rough idea of its appearance. You really can't appreciate it until you either use it yourself, or talk to someone who has used it. It does everything that a coal range will do—except heat the room. The New Perfection Oil Cook-stove will do anything, from heating a kettle of water to cooking a course dinner, but it won't heat a room. It doesn't "smell," it doesn't smoke. It can't get out of order. Light it and it is ready. Turn it down and it is out. Only a woman who knows the trouble of carrying coal and cooking in a hot kitchen can appreciate what it means to have a clean, perfect stove that will cook anything, boil, bake or roast, and yet won't heat the kitchen. How is it done? The flame is controlled in turquoise-blue enamel chimneys, and directed against the bottom of pot, pan, kettle or oven, and only there. The flame operates exactly where it is needed—and nowhere else. With this stove your kitchen is cool.

The nickel finish with the bright blue of the enamel makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, the 2 and 3 burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

Cherub Devine
By
SEWELL FORD
Copyright, 1909, by Mitchell Kennerley

"I never discuss matters of business with my daughter. Women do not understand such matters. Of course it is necessary to have her sign papers now and then. The lawyers insist on it, some of the property having been left to her, but I never try to explain things which I do not fully comprehend myself. The sale of this place, for instance, still perplexes me. I did not desire it at all. I suppose, however, that it was necessary as a matter of form. Probably you have a clearer notion of it than I, Mr. Devine."

"Your idea is a bit hazy," admitted the Cherub.

"Perhaps so, but I presume that your—er—possession here is only a temporary arrangement. Matters will soon be adjusted, I suppose, when my attorneys finally get around to it. My daughter was more or less worried until I assured her that I would attend to the affair personally."

"Then she cheered up, did she?" Mr. Devine appeared to find the conversation entertaining.

"She was relieved, of course. But I have been so engrossed in preparing a pamphlet on—well, on a scientific subject which would not be of interest to you—that I have neglected to take the proper steps. However, now that you thoroughly understand the situation, I trust that you will not act hastily."

"Oh, I shan't put you out or anything like that, Mr. Hewington. Make your mind easy on that score."

"It is very considerate of you, sir. Of course until the affair is settled we shall not encroach on your technical right of possession more than is absolutely necessary. If the present arrangement is satisfactory I would suggest that it be continued."

The Cherub favored Mr. Hewington with a whimsical smile. "Well, we'll let the thing drift for awhile anyway. Only you don't have to act as though you were prisoners. Why don't you and the countess come down to your meals just as though I wasn't here?"

"My dear sir"—Here Mr. Hewington began an exhaustive review of the situation. When he was through Mr. Devine chuckled gleefully. It was an amazingly simple proposition. The Hewingtons were the Hewingtons, and he—well, he was Cherub Devine. That told the story.

It was all done very courteously and delicately in Mr. Hewington's fine, aristocratic manner, yet nothing but the superlative buoyancy of Mr. Devine's audacious soul saved him from being utterly crushed.

"I wish I could have dreams like that," soliloquized the Cherub when he had been left alone.

The possibilities incident upon acquiring a quiet country house were surprising to Mr. Cherub Devine.

"Get up," he ordered. "I'm not exactly what you call an unwelcome guest, am I? I guess I must be an unwelcome host, then, and hanged if that isn't a new one on me. But there's worse and more of it. I'm no gentleman, for one item. Then, if I'm to believe all I hear about myself, I'm a deep dyed villain and an unrepentant sinner who has butted into his own house. Take it all around, things are pretty badly mixed. Wonder what program I ought to follow."

More or less thought did Mr. Devine

SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENTAL

Former Mayor of a Minnesota Town Badly Wounded.

Duluth, April 16.—Charles Olson, former mayor of Aurora, was found in his room at his home in that village unconscious from a bullet wound in his breast. He was taken to a local hospital, where it was said there is a chance for life. It was at first believed Mr. Olson had committed suicide, but the authorities said it was probably accidental. Mr. Olson was alone in his room at the time of the shooting. He had a small caliber rifle in his hands. The bullet passed just above his heart, coming out at the left shoulder.

TO SNAP HALLEY'S COMET.

Special Camera Set Up to Picture It as It Crosses the Sun.

A special astronomical camera has been set up at Honolulu which is expected to catch some interesting pictures of Halley's comet when on May 18 it completes its 3,100,000,000 mile trip around the sun and begins a similar journey all over again.

Dr. John H. Brashear, who told recently at Pittsburgh of providing the camera, said that on May 18 the head of the comet would cross the solar disk and the phenomenon would be plainly visible in the Pacific ocean. It will take the comet but fifty-eight minutes, he said, to cross the sun's face, and at that time it will be possible to determine how much solid matter is in the comet's nucleus, for all solid portions over ten miles in diameter will be indicated by shadowed spots against the sun's background. The comet on that day will be only 15,000,000 miles away from the earth and consequently will be brighter than at any other time. The experiments in Honolulu are being made by the American Astronomical and Astrophysical society.

$3.50 RECIPE CURES WEAK KIDNEYS, FREE

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and the Back Also

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?
I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a Quick Recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K33 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.
It will quickly show its power, once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy Free—you can use it
